Infrastructure; banking & finance; real estate; capital markets and financial securities; mergers, acquisitions, and joint ventures; intellectual property rights; litigation and arbitration; taxation; employment/human resource and industrial relations.

Our services

Little & Co was established in 1856, under the able guidance of Mr. John Pares Bickersteth and was the first to be registered under the Indian Partnership Act, 1932. The law firm has had the honor of representing the East India Company, the Secretary of State for India, the Government of Bombay Presidency and its successors and the State of Maharashtra till 1974. The law firm has acted as solicitors to the Great Indian Peninsula Railway and continued to act for it till its merger with the Central Railway. The incorporation of the Tata Iron and Steel Company was done with the assistance of the firm and its then partner Mr. TCB Acworth signed the company's original Memorandum of Association.

Mr. Charles Grundy, the last British Senior Partner, was the only expatriate British lawyer practicing law in India, after independence. The law firm combines the heritage of the best practices along with the present-day legal expectations, to bring clientele the most efficient and practical advice in the most competent and organized manner. The firm is known for its integrity, efficiency, and a high intensity of partner involvement. The law firm aims to ensure a high degree of personal involvement, quick service delivery and quality advice that is based on practical understanding of the business perspective of the client and is also relevant from a legal perspective.

Services For Individuals

We offer a full gamut of services related to Matrimonial/Family Law (Civil and Criminal). Parul Vedak and Associates recognize that Matrimonial and Family matters are complex and turn into an explosive emotional minefield very quickly. We strive to help our clients navigate the legal aspect of this minefield as simply and amicably as possible. Our services start with counselling, mediation, and mutually agreeable solutions with the aim of avoiding a long drawn legal pathway. However, often amicable solutions are not possible, where upon we offer advice on full range of strategy, planning and execution of Divorce proceedings, Protection from domestic violence, maintenance proceedings child custody settlements as well as associated financial settlements. We further protect the interests of our clients for false and frivolous civil and criminal cases filed against them and their family and offer guidance in seeking protection/resettlement assistance. In addition to the above, we have built key expertise on division of business, properties, investment, and intellectual property assets, which are complicated due to implications related to IT laws. Takes cases outside the jurisdiction of Mumbai City.

For Corporates

We work with Internal Redressal Committees of companies, as required by the POSH ACT, 2013. Our services include conducting Workshops on Gender Sensitization, Awareness Programs on statutory rights/obligations of women employees in workplace as well as of the Internal Complaint's Committee. In case of violations or improprieties we offer legal advice to both the company as well as employees and further provide a detailed incidence report after conducting necessary enquiries.
